An ecumenical conference of the Meth-

Church, in Cincinnati, a plan was drawn up and agreed to by the representatives the different branches in the United 4 000 000 of actual communicants and a Methodist population of about 15,000,000. There are numerous branches in Europe and this country, and they will all be rep-and list powers are numer.

A this country, and was sented in the conference.

The members of the conference.

The members of the conference anumber 400, one-half of whom will resent British and Continental Methodism and one-half the churches in the United States and Canada. As nearly as possible the conference will be composed of lay and clerical delegates equally. The 200 delegates from the United States will be assigned to the churches as follows: The Milwaukee and St. Pa. cember without repower withou 6; the Unios American Protestant Unuren, 2; the Methodist Protestant Church, 4; the Free Methodist Church, 4; the Independent Methodist Church, 2; the Congregational Methodist Church, 2; the Methodist Church of Canada, 12; the M. E. Church of Canada, 4; the Primitive Methodist Church in the United States and Canada, 2; the Bitle Christian, 2; the British M. E. Church, 2 The remaining six members are left to be distributed by the western section of the general executive committee. The assignments of delegates to the European and Continental Churches have not been made. The delegates will be named by the conferences as they meet between this time and next July.

The conference will not meet for legislative purposes, for it will have moanthority to legislate. It is not for doctrinal controversies, for Methodism has no doctrinal differences. It is not for an attempt to harmonize the various politics and usages differences. It is not for an attempt to harmonize the various politics and usages of the several branches of the one great Methodist family, for Methodism has always atriven for unity rather than unifor-nity. It is not, in a word, for consolida-ion, but for co-operation. It is to devise uch means for prosecuting the home and oreign work as will result in the greatest economy and efficiency, to promote fra-ernity, to increase the moral and evan-relical power of a common Methodism, nd to secure the mere speedy conversion of the world.

It has been suggested that the proper topics to consider are those respecting popery, paganism, panperism, scepticism, intemperance and kindred vices, the relation of Methodism to education, the means of evangelization, such as an itinerant ministry, training, schools for Christian workers, both at home and abroad; Sanday Schools and special efforts for special classes. Concerning missionary labor, it is turther proposed to examine Methodism as a missionary movement, the relation of is turther proposed to examine Methodism as a missionary movement, the relation of the home work to the foreign work and the best mode of avoiding waste and rivalries, and of securing instead thereof sympathy and co-operation between different Methodist bodies occupying the same or contiguous mission fields; the use of the press for the increase of Christian knowledge and sanctifying power; the resources of Methodism in numbers, wealth, culture, spiritual life and revival agencies, and the corresponding responsi-

The conference will meet in City Road Chapel, which was the first church of the Methodists. For many years John Wesley preached there, and his pulpit is still shown to Methodist travelers who visit England's capital. The delegation from this country will be composed of the stongest men in the church, and will most probably be headed by Bishop Simpson, of the M. E. Church. Great interest in the conference is manifested by all the branches of the church, and it promises to be the most important assembly of

In a brief interview with George M.
Hatch, of Hatch Bros., prominent woolgrowers of Meagher county, we learned that the amazing number of 95,000 sheep have been driven into Montana the present year. Mr. Hatch is an authority in sheep matters generally accepted by your people, and the figures he gives may safely be considered as reliable. Most of the flocks driven here and sold have come from Oregon and Southern and Northern California. One flock only has thi year came from Utah. The average price realized for driven sheep, ewes and wethers, has been $2.55, with a rady market for the entire suppl. Breed-ewes still command $3 a head, with a live inquiry for increased numbers. The Hatch Bros. have added this year 4,000 head to their flock, making their purchases in Northern California. Montana is booming in cattle and sheep. The annoal wool crop will soon mount up into millions and reaxie to our people a revenue equal to that brought by our beed.
